DINA FEIGLIN 2006

The New Aliya Youth Center

Alternative Learning Institute For Young Adults

An Address for Our Youth

A place where all young adults feel they belong.

A relaxed atmosphere with a Chassidic twist.

"Just by walking into ALIYA it makes me feel elevated."

—Sholom Greisman

Saving Lives

"Aliya saves many lives of the youth
in our community physically and spiritually
— a worthy cause to support."

—An aliya supporter.

A Place for Our Future

"Aliya represents to many youth in our community that there is a future in religious Judaism" —Shimon Minkowits.

For many of its members, Aliya is the soul resource for their spiritual needs.

A Place for Education
Chavrusos, Shiurim, GED, and a Smicha Program are provided throughout the day and evening to suit all. Guest speakers and lectures are organized at Aliya right through the year.

A Place for Prayer

A Shabbos and Yom Tov youth minyan with a comfortable atmosphere is provided for the boys, followed by a full Kiddush and Farbrengen. Weekday minyanim are open to the community.

A Place for Recreation
The new facility will provide the youth with ample space to work out in our fully equipped weight gym, to use the pool tables, to play music and lounge. They also benefit from Shabbatons, ski trips camping trips & more.
